Give a Damn

Licence fees should go back to fisheries, Tories insist

by Jerry Grozelle

Chris Hodgson does "give a damn." The PC candidate in the March 17 Victoria-Haliburton by-election, gained some insight and shared his observations when he attended a meeting in Bobcaygeon last week.

Hodgson, provincial PC leader Mike Harris and several members of the provincial Conservative caucus met with representatives from the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters, local representatives from the tourist industry and concerned outdoors enthusiasts to discuss, among other things, the value of fishing to local tourism.

The OFAH has set up a fund-raising committee to raise money to aid in the fight to save the dwindling fish stocks in the area. The campaign has been dubbed Give a Damn and a fund-raising dinner will be held in August. Hodgson showed that he does give a damn by buying a ticket to the dinner.

Most of the members of that committee were on hand to offer suggestions to Hodgson and Harris.

"From fish stocking to licence fees, their message was loud and clear," Hodgson said. "Bureaucrats in Toronto are making decisions that affect our lives — and often they're the wrong decisions."

Hodgson is a hunter and fisherman himself. He was instrumental in starting the Haliburton Highlands Outdoors Association so he is aware of the importance of fishing as a tourist attraction to the Victoria-Haliburton riding.

"I realize there are special needs all through the riding," he said.

Hodgson said he looks forward to seeing the restocking program happen. He added that he realizes the impact fishing has on the local economy by bringing more people into the area to spend money

Politics in the school

High School students are taking an active interest in this provincial by-election, thanks to an invitation extended by teacher Frank Wallace. The Liberal, Conservative and NDP candidates have all been invited to come into the classroom to meet with students and address their concerns. Conservative candidate Chris Hodgson visited Friday afternoon and NDP candidate Art Field was there in the morning. This is the first time HHSS has allowed candidates into the school at election time. The school board established a policy earlier this year that allows for political activities within the school. The Liberal candidate will be in class this week.

Cracking down on welfare frauds

The Minden OPP is beginning to crack down on the abuse of the welfare system.

Working in co-operation with the Ministry of Community and Social Services, Detective Constable Al Bibby has begun to take a serious look at suspected welfare frauds in the area.

Bibby says the ministry provides him with the lead on the cases and he carries out the investigations. "It's all on paper," he said. "You can follow the paper route."

This collaboration resulted with a charge last week.

Doreen Evelyn Smith of Lot 20, Concession 4, Dysart Township has been charged with defrauding the ministry of $52,981.09. She is to appear in Provincial Court Minden on April 27.

Other suspected welfare frauds are under investigation.

Field supports Junior Kindergarten ... sort of Junior Kindergarten is a made in Toronto program that doesn't work well in rural Ontario, says Art Field.

Still, the NDP candidate supports the program.

Field found himself between a rock and a hard place Friday struggling with an issue he admittedly has little knowledge of.

The candidate was in front of the board of CHACE at the Haliburton Resource Centre attempting to defend his party's stand on Junior Kindergarten when he let it slip: "These policies are set in Toronto and are not allowing for rural needs." In particular, he said he foresees problems with sending four-year-old children out on buses.

Field admitted that Junior Kindergarten is a new issue to him and he has been reading the government literature in an attempt to get a better handle on it. He said he likes what he has read and fears that children who do not attend will lag behind the others in their education. He said it's good to get children into school as soon as possible so those with learning disabilities can be identified earlier.

Sue Valm, executive director of CHACE, however, said it is extremely difficult to diagnose learning disabilities before a child is five or six years old. Further, she said there is no evidence that a head start in the education system offers any academic advantage.

Field noted that parents do not have to send their children. "It's not mandatory. You don't have to go if you don't want to."

Regarding the added cost of offering this program, Field said "It's an on-going fight." He said it's an example of "Big brother sending something down, but not sending all of it ... not paying the cost."

Trails strategy given green light

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce has been given the green light to proceed with its development and marketing strategy for a year-round, multi-use trails and tours network.

The chamber received a $57,500 cheque from the Ministry of Culture, Tourism and Recreation in a pre-election forum last Wednesday.

On hand for the cheque presentation at Hart Lodge were NDP candidate Art Field, Muskoka MPP Dan Waters and Culture, Tourism and Recreation Minister Anne Swarbrick.

"I am pleased that our government could provide funding which will help this organization determine the land and water-based trail opportunities in the region," Swarbrick said. "The project will serve as a blueprint for future development and help the chamber develop a marketing strategy to encourage more visitors."

The planning phase of the project involves taking an inventory of existing trails in the county, improving the tourism infrastructure and identifying opportunities to link and improve trails. Established trails and signage will be upgraded and a marketing plan will be developed and implemented to promote year-round use of the trails by visitors and residents.

"Everyone wins with this project," the minister said. "The county's tourism businesses, municipalities, trail groups, residents and guests will all benefit because the trail network will bring more money, jobs and publicity into the community."

Dare to go bear

Anne Neave and Lorraine Turcotte model the sweatshirts with the Teddy bear motif being offered this year as part of the Hospital for Sick Children's annual fund raising drive. The cap and waist napsack are also available this year. Orders for the items can be placed at Campbell's Garden Centre and Flower Shop.

Once again this year, Campbell's Garden Centre and Flower Shop will be coordinating the local "Wear Your Bear" campaign.

The bears referred to in the slogan is the cute teddy bear which is featured on the front of sweat and T shirts and are a part of the Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children's annual fund raising drive.

The "wear your bear" slogan is tied to the telethon scheduled for Saturday and Sunday June 4 & 5. Donors are encouraged to wear the shirts on June 3 to 5 to show their support for the hospital effort and to remind others of the important role the hospital has played in the health of children in the province.

In addition to the shirts, this year the program is offering waist napsacks with a belt and caps. These feature the telethon logo.

In addition to the bear logo on the front of the shirts, the inscription on the back reads, "I'm helping a miracle happen." If a business order 25 or more of the shirts, its corporate name is added to the inscription.

For more information on this special campaign contact Campbell's Garden Centre in Minden.

and create jobs for the local people.

The question of fishing licence money that previous governments promised would be used to enhance the sport fishery in Ontario was raised more than once. Hodgson responded by saying that he believes money collected from licence sales should be turned back into the sport fishery for stocking and enforcement.

"That's what the licence system was designed for," he said. "It's gotten away from that. It's just a tax grab now."

Harris agreed that the fishing licence has become nothing more than a tax grab that is doing nothing for sport fishing in this province.

"When the fishing licence was brought in, we objected. We said we think it's a mistake unless the money goes into a separate pool," Harris said, adding that the OFAH asked his party to support the implementation of a fishing licence with the Liberal government's promise to use the funds to enhance the sport fishery. "I think folks now would agree we should have held out."

Harris pointed out that the government has doubled its spending since the Conservatives left power in 1985, yet fish stocking programs have been cut.

"It's money you raised," Hodgson added. "But where's it going? What is it used for? Clearly, it's not to support restocking and fish habitat improvement. We want to change that."

Karl Dickob of the Kinmount Fish Farm told the PC leader that aquaculture was flourishing in the early to mid 1980s but has declined since then. He wondered where the fish would come from to stock the lakes.

"Where is the infrastructure? Where do we get the fish from?" he asked. "We're spending millions of dollars to educate the kids here at Sir Sandford Fleming College (in the aquaculture course) and when they come out, there are no jobs."

"Who has the guts to stand up to the establishment of the MNR?"

Harris stated that all of the public forums he has attended have been productive in terms of positive input.

"We haven't been to any of our community events where we have not come away significantly wiser than when we came to town," he said.

Dave Poole of Buckeye Marine in Bobcaygeon told Harris that his family has been selling fishing licences to non-residents for the past 45 years and he wondered why the money generated from the sale of licences can't be kept in the area for fishery related use.

"Bobcaygeon lives and dies by tourism and tourism lives and dies by fishing — or at least it did," Poole said.

"When my grandfather started our business, the fish were there. But they're not there any more. And it doesn't take a wizard and it doesn't take a biologist to figure out they're not there."

"If we can show people that this area is making a conscious effort towards bringing fish back, I think that's a very big issue."

Poole said he believes something has to be done to keep people in this area.

"We're selling licences to people who are jumping in their cars and going down to Trenton to fish," he said. "And I've got a real problem with that."

Harris responded, saying: "We're clearly on the record that all monies collected from fishing and hunting licences go back into a clearly identifiable separate pool of money. You've got to have it separate and identifiable so they can't fudge the numbers."

Harris said that fishing and hunting aren't the only activities that bring tourists into the area, but that a lot of the other activities are related. He says that when he was a youngster, his parents brought him to Bobcaygeon and he was really impressed with the numbers of fish he saw. He has since returned to the area because of his earlier experiences.

Harris added that people who take part in fishing and hunting activities tend to bring their families back to the same area to enjoy other activities.

Dr. Terry Quinney of the OFAH questioned why not only fishing licence funds but also the money raised from fines and confiscated equipment related to game and fish act violations can't be earmarked for conservation resources.

OFAH Contributor Services Representative Gary Carter explained that the Give A Damn campaign was conceived to deal with the problems of declining fish resources in the area.

Those problems will be identified by a panel of three independent experts in Fishery supporters: PC candidate Chris Hodgson was joined by party leader Mike Harris to talk with people interested in the quality of fishing. the field of fisheries research. Two of those people, Dr. Ed Crossman and Dr. Desmond Anthony are leaders in the fisheries field in Ontario and the other is Dennis Schupp of Minnesota, who is considered a leading walleye expert.

The trio is in the process of analyzing data provided from ministry creel studies and other data. They are expected to present their findings this spring.

Harris told the audience that the ministry said restocking wouldn't work in Lake Nipissing but local people forced the issue and the restocking project turned out to be successful. Harris said that Dr. Desmond Anthony was one of the consultants who was in favour of stocking in Nipissing.

The PC leader said he is convinced that restocking in Nipissing has brought back quality fishing. He congratulated the people involved in the Give A Damn campaign, saying: "It's exactly the kind of thing the government should be supporting."

On another front, Harris was asked what the Progressive Conservative party's goals were concerning economic recovery.

He replied that most people want less government interference. They feel better able to spend their own money to create jobs without being told by the government how it should be done.

"You all know that there are politicians who believe that government spending is the answer," Harris said. "They believe that they can spend your money better than you can. The fact of the matter is that once the government gets its mitts on your money, it will end up being used for something that would have been different from your priorities."

"The overall theme we're hearing is for government to get out of our face and let us live our lives."

"We need to bring common sense back into government spending."

"We want any advice you can give us to help push this government now. We'll send a pretty powerful message to the Ontario government that you're not happy with the direction the government is going."

Hodgson concluded: "I want to be your representative at Queen's Park, not Queen's Park's representative to you. We're all in this together."

"The second reason I want to be your representative is to send a clear message to the bureaucracy of the NDP government that we're just a little tired of all the regulations and high taxation and it seems their priorities are not our priorities."

Tourism minister boosts Field campaign

by Jerry Grozelle

Anne Swarbrick, Minister of Culture, Recreation and Tourism was in Haliburton last week to outline her new tourism strategy and boost NDP candidate Art Field's chances of winning the provincial by-election in this riding.

Her first task was to get input from the local operators regarding a new provincial tourism strategy.

Swarbrick's parliamentary assistant Dan Waters (MPP for Muskoka-Georgian Bay) was also present to take part in the dialogue.

Field served as moderator for the evening.

Swarbrick outlined the contents of a recent report entitled Ontario's Tourism Industry: Opportunity - Progress - Innovation. The 92-page report addresses the economic potential, sets targets, outlines a marketing strategy, deals with the capacity to deliver high-quality services and recommends strengthening key industry organizations. An agenda for action is also presented.

The minister admitted that the tourism industry is the first to suffer and the last to recover in recessionary times.

"We realize that tourism is the number one industry locally," she said. "We are taking tourism very seriously. That's obviously part of why we need to work with you on continuing to grow, to be able to help expand your economy and create jobs locally.

"We've been trying very hard to find just what are the right kinds of policies to really help stimulate the renewal of our economy."

"We've developed a number of really good initiatives that I think are the kind of foundations for helping to regrow our economy."

Swarbrick told the audience of about 20 people that global tourism has been increasing but that since 1986, Canada has been losing its market share, compared to the rest of the world.

"That is something that my government in Ontario is bent and determined to help change. We believe in building on strength," she said.

"In 1991, tourism put $19-billion into the Ontario economy," Swarbrick noted. "That made it our fourth largest export."

Three new candidates appear

Three new candidates have come out of the woodwork to take advantage of the by-election soap box.

The first of the candidates meetings was held last Thursday in Bobcaygeon, where the audience of 125 was treated to twice the number of candidates they had expected.

In addition to Chris Hodgson (PC), Art Field (NDP) and Sharon McCrea (Lib), three new candidates showed up for the event.

Libertarian Candidate Ron Hawkrig is making his second bid for the position after finishing fifth out of six candidates in the general election of 1991.

The real surprises, though, were the two independent candidates who paid their $200 and filed papers in time for the first candidates forum. These candidates are former Minden by-law enforcement officer Brad Bradamore and John Tremel, who doesn't live in the riding.

Tremel, from Nepean, Ontario, is affiliated with the federal Abolitionist party. The basis of his platform is a computer program which might be helpful if the country goes to a barter system.

Lost Decade: Tory leader laments fortunes lost to misplaced priorities

More than 300 Victoria-Haliburton voters heard a message of hope and optimism from Ontario P.C. Leader Mike Harris at a public forum in Lindsay last week.

Harris was joined by P.C. by-election candidate Chris Hodgson in reviewing a decade of Liberal and NDP rule in Ontario, which was characterized by massive spending and tax increases and the onset of "government by interest groups."

"Our party is fighting for the priorities of real Ontarians who demand a return to leaner, more efficient government, for sensible taxation and economic commonsense," Harris said.

"Of course, Lyn McLeod and Bob Rae have their priorities, too," said Harris, "but they are dictated by pressure groups and represent no one but themselves."

It is misplaced priorities like these that have led to what we call Ontario's Lost Decade - 10 straight years of tax-and-spend government that has virtually bankrupted our province, our businesses and our families."

Thirty three times in five straight budgets, Harris said, the Ontario Liberals either increased existing taxes or introduced new ones, with their current leader at the cabinet table.

"Today, the Liberal legacy can be seen on the faces of our jobless, in the line-ups at food banks and in the eyes of Ontario families who have lost their homes, their life savings - and their hope."

Harris stressed it's not too late to recapture the drive that sustained Ontario as Canada's economic powerhouse.

Boards should have say on JK

Junior Kindergarten has become an issue in Haliburton County since the New Democrat government insisted that all boards must begin implementing it by this September. The Haliburton County Board of Education doesn't want it and is trying to convince the government to grant a postponement.

Field was the second candidate to address this issue Friday. Conservative candidate Chris Hodgson met with CHACE a few minutes earlier and said he is opposed to mandatory implementation of Junior Kindergarten. He said it should be left as an option for individual boards to choose. While the program might solve daycare problems in Toronto, it's not well suited to all of Ontario. "Metro Toronto's solutions aren't always the best," he said.

Hodgson also noted that the program was not initiated by this government. He said it was first introduced in a Throne Speech when the Liberals were in power in 1989.

When asked how a Conservative MPP can have an impact, Hodgson said opposition members can have more influence than backbench members of the government because they are allowed to speak freely.

Tories try high tech video promo

Electioneering has gone high tech.

In an effort to reach a broader base of voters, the Progressive Conservatives have produced a six-minute video in which their candidate, Chris Hodgson, outlines his election platform.

The videos are being randomly delivered to mailboxes throughout Victoria and Haliburton Counties this week, says PC campaign chairman Andrew Hodgson. "We understand that it's difficult for many people to make it out to the public meetings," says Hodgson. "This brings Chris right into the comfort of their homes."

This is the first time in Ontario that this sort of promotion has been tried. Hodgson is asking people to view the video objectively and then pass it along to neighbours and friends.

Chris Hodgson is the Conservative candidate for the March 17 by-election in the provincial riding of Victoria-Haliburton

Real Change for Real Jobs.

Chris Hodgson.

Chris Hodgson was born and raised in Victoria-Haliburton. Rooted in the values of our region, he has worked hard to raise his family and run a business here. Chris knows how difficult that can be, and he understands what government can do to help. He also understands what government is doing to get in the way.

Chris Hodgson believes that Ontario is headed down the wrong track. We need real change and we need it now. That's why Chris has proposed a five point Jobs Plan for Victoria-Haliburton.

The Hodgson Plan

1. Cut the size and cost of government.
2. Create a good employment climate.
3. Reform education.
4. Reduce the deficit.
5. Lower taxes.

Chris Hodgson believes that Ontario's current government has got its priorities wrong. Jobs must come first. That would be a real change — the kind of change we need in Victoria-Haliburton.

On March 17, help send Chris to Queen's Park.

Literacy Centre moves to new Haliburton home

The official opening of the county's new Literacy Centre was celebrated with a well-attended open house last week. The spacious new centre on the lower level of the Health Unit building in Haliburton Village, was donated for the program's use by Dr. Harry Good. The centre was furnished with necessities donated by a variety of local sources and it offers a range of learning resources as well as tables for tutoring and access to a conference room for private meetings. For those involved, the new space is a welcome change from the tiny space the program has occupied for several years.

The program currently has more than 50 adult students improving their reading, writing and basic math skills. It has also expanded into teaching English as a second language.

Operating under the auspices of the Peterborough John Howard Society, the program is staffed by trained volunteers under the supervision of co-ordinator Barbara Nangle. Anyone interested in helping out around the office or becoming involved as a student or tutor can call 457-3430.

February 2 has come and gone and the ground hog again saw his shadow. Frightened by such a sight, he returned to his burrow for another six weeks of winter, so the story goes. It would appear that nature knows best, as four weeks of cold weather have passed and it looks like at least another two will follow.

This month we have had 17 days of temperatures colder than -18 C (0 F) and five days when the mercury reached 0 C (32 F). The summary for February 1994, then, is cold and clear as we had 19 mostly sunny days out of 28. If you feel that this year has been colder for some reason, check the chart below. February 1993 was very similar to this year. Maybe we are just getting soft.

Catching the bad guys

Why aren't the police out chasing real criminals?

This age-old complaint, which is uttered each and every time a traffic ticket is written, holds no water in the Minden area.

Over the past two weeks we've seen some excellent results from the officers with the Minden detachment of the OPP.

Two weeks ago we witnessed the conclusion of an investigation into a string of break-ins and thefts. Eighteen people were charged in this round-up. While the courts still have to rule on these cases, the police action demonstrates these incidents have not been ignored. Although this likely won't put an end to all the thefts that occur in the area, it will give potential law-breakers something to consider before they cross that line.

This week we see the police are setting their sights on individuals who rip off the welfare system. Especially at this time, when welfare costs are putting a tremendous strain on the county budget and welfare department workload, we applaud this initiative. Detective Constable Al Bibby is working in conjunction with the Ministry of Community and Social Services to track down and charge those who are poking holes in this social safety net. Again, it will be difficult to catch all those who are defrauding the system, but each charge will carry with it a warning.

A tip of the hat to the officers who are out chasing real criminals.

County seat lacking opportunities

Editor,

Can you explain why, when 57% of the population is serviced out of Minden, our income tax office (Information Centre) here is open only one day a week.

Haliburton serves 43 per cent of the population and its office is open five days a week.

Has County Council forgotten that Minden is the "County Seat - capital of the county"? People have to drive to Haliburton for UIC, health care, Home Support Services and driving tests for seniors, who may not be familiar with Haliburton streets.

Sports fans appreciate comfy new bleachers

Editor,

A big thank you to Dave and Corinne Howell of Minden Auto Care for the beautiful bench donated to the Minden Community Centre.

There are many spectators who cannot endure the cold of the arena, and these seats are great for them. It is hard, especially for our seniors, to have to stand for hours on a cement floor.

Hopefully, there soon will be another bench like this in the lobby of the arena.

Inspired by team support

Editor,

As a parent of one of the Bantam A players, I would like to thank all of the people who have travelled to support the team and who have come out to the home games.

Your support mean a lot, coaches, players and parents. thank you.

It's a good feeling when so many care.

The Times welcomes signed letters to the editor on subjects of interest to our readers. Short letters are most likely to be chosen for publication, but the use of any material is at the discretion of the editor. The editor reserves the right to edit letters to meet space requirements, for clarity or to avoid obscenity, libel or invasion of privacy.

Upon request, names may be withheld, but only very rarely and for compelling reasons. Letters published do not necessarily reflect the editorial policies or beliefs of this newspaper. All letters must bear the handwritten signature of the writer and include the address and phone number for verification purposes.

Correction:

A news story in the February 28 edition of The Times incorrectly identified one of the persons charged in relation to break-ins and thefts.

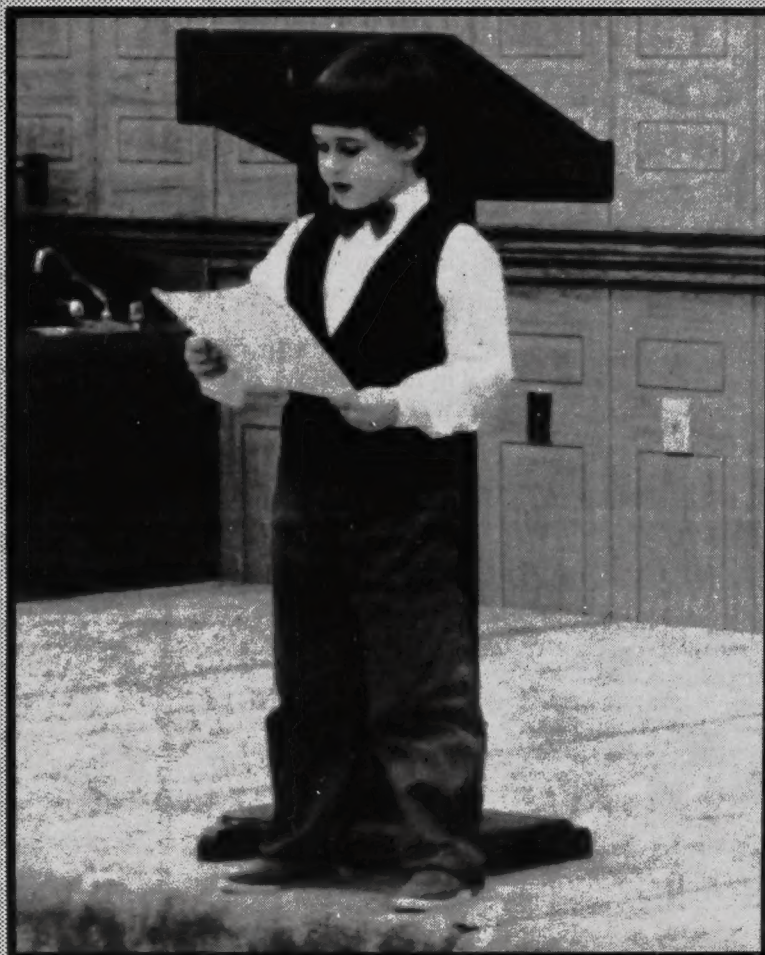

Troy Emmerson, 18, of Haliburton was charged in connection with the theft of three snowmobiles from the Kashagawigamog Lake area early this year.

We apologize to Tracy Emmerson, formerly of Haliburton, for the inconvenience this error has caused.

Got a gripe?

Got a compliment?

Promises made to be broken

Editor,

The people should beware of pre-election promises concerning the future of our Minden Hospital. I witnessed Chris Hodgson voting whole-heartedly for all of the long term care beds to be located in Haliburton. At the time he had the opportunity to demonstrate his commitment to both Haliburton and Minden by voting for half of such beds to be located in Minden. To me he showed no concern for the inconvenience to the people residing in and around Minden who will require the use of these beds in the future.

We all know from experience that pre-election promises are made to be broken.

Let's work together

Editor,

To all those attention-payers out there, Quebec is leaving Canada; at least that is according to one man, L. Bouchard, eh.

Well then, it is time for the rest of us to grip the edge of our rocking chairs because the financial grip on our country is tightening.

The solution is a buy-back plan. Pay cash, hold on, and stay tuned -- more of Canada yet to come? Perhaps, if we work together.

Relax folks! Nothing's happening

A man with a watch knows what time it is.

A man with two watches isn't quite sure.

I realize that you are in a hurry. You're trying to get through this newspaper so that you'll have time to plough through those half dozen news magazines left over from last week, that RRSP brochure you vowed you would read today and still have time to watch Prime Time News, right? Still, do you think you could spare a couple of seconds to read about the latest disease?

You'd better, because you've got it pal.

It's called InfoAngst. Symptoms: clammy palms, shortness of breath and emotional agitation, especially following abstention from news reports—printed, televised or heard over the Walkman.

Simply put, InfoAngst is a terror of missing something—of being ill-informed.

InfoAngst threatens to become the Bubonic Plague of the late twentieth century, and that shouldn't be surprising. It would be physically impossible for you to read every newspaper, magazine, pamphlet and brochure that is printed in this province each day, much less in the country.

And as for books—do you know how many books were printed in English in 1993?

One thousand, according to The Daily Telegraph.

Ah....that's one thousand per day, of course.

The problem with InfoAngst is that it's indiscriminating. Any old chaff will do for the mill. Just think about some of the "news" stories about which you already know more than you care.

The Prince Charles/Di/Camilla triangle. Are the grubby goings-on among this trio of dreary Brits worth one second of your time?

The Bobbit Cropping. Would the quality of your life be significantly diminished if you'd never encountered the lurid details of Loreena versus John Wayne.

The Tonya Harding/Nancy Kerrigan kneecapping.

InfoAngst

... a terror of missing something—of being ill-informed.

Black'n White

by Arthur Black

A contretemps between two foreign competitors in the sport of figure skating. News just doesn't get more trivial than that.

And of course there's the on-going saga of President Bill Clinton and whether he was or wasn't involved in some shady land deals when he was or wasn't cavorting with nubile voters in the privacy of his government limousine.

News? Not hardly.

The problem with the newspapers is the headline. Tradition has it that newspapers must feature that big, bold slash of type across the front page, whether or not there is anything to merit it. Thus, a front page headline can trumpet a warning about continental earthquakes one day and a local traffic jam the next.

No newspaper has ever had the courage to run a front page banner reading, "RELAX, FOLKS! NOTHING HAPPENED!"

The Irish genius George Bernard Shaw put it more pungently. "A newspaper," said Shaw, "is a device unable to discriminate between a bicycle accident and the collapse of civilisation."

The solution to all this? Don't ask me. As a scribbler for the papers, I'm obviously part of the problem, not the solution.

However, I will offer this letter from Annie Davidson, one of our many wonderful readers. Annie loathes the way our newsmakers smugly refer to the ill-informed as being 'off the planet'. She writes:

"Could you please trash the phrase 'off the planet'? Not only is it over-used, it oozes all over with the smugness and self-importance of the media that spawned it.

"I did not miss last summer's Teal/Homolka round up by being 'off the planet'. On the contrary, I was very much on the planet, turning my front lawn into a rose garden.

"The Conservative Leadership Convention? Sorry. I was having the love affair of the century. Did I miss anything?

"We should be toasting people who manage to escape the ubiquity of popular culture now and again. Let us respectfully refer to them henceforth as the 'Media Immune' and welcome them back to the planet."

Sounds good, Annie. A natural state of InfoAngst—a voluntary readership strike to give our overworked brains a rest.

Er, not including readers of The Times, of course.

'Brand name' needed for promotion

She added that tourism puts more into the economy than agriculture, mining, forestry and utilities combined.

Swarbrick acknowledged the importance of snowmobiling to tourism.

"So we chose to put $14-million into the snow track program to develop 8,000 kilometres of snowmobile trails throughout Ontario," Swarbrick said. "We injected 127,000 of those dollars into your local area here to develop those trails to help you to attract those tourists into the lodges, resorts, restaurants and what have you."

Establishing Ontario as a brand name tourism area that will be recognized around the world is a strategy that the tourism ministry is looking at. A regional brand name theme is also something that the minister feels is something that can be developed to promote tourism in places like Haliburton. To that end, the report recommends the establishment of a provincial tourism marketing organization with industry and government working together.

Waters said he is really excited about the branding approach, adding that he has faith in the tourist industry to come up with a catch phrase with a 15 to 20 year life span.

"We need to let them know what we have to offer," Waters said. "To give tourists the opportunity to experience what we have to offer."

"The biggest market out there for us to grab is the European market."

SUGGESTIONS

The audience had the chance to ask questions and offer suggestions. One of the first to offer a suggestion was Pierre Archer of Haliburton. Archer said that all terrain vehicle trails should be developed the same as snowmobile trails to give ATV owners the same opportunity to enjoy their sport.

"It's an opportunity that's being missed," he said. "If people don't have trails to use, they end up selling them (ATVs) because they don't have enough places to use them."

Susan Wilson, a member of the Minden Sled Dog Derby Committee, said that the derby could be packaged as a family oriented event and sold to the European market.

"In terms of the marketing abroad," said Ann Larcade, a manager at the PineStone Inn, "really, it's for us to come together and put together the modules so that they are handed on a plate to the wholesalers."

AMERICAN TOURISTS

Archer commented on the decrease in American visitors.

"Up here, we're not getting very many Americans as tourists any more," he said. They're few and far between. I'm seeing more people from England and Japan and Germany than I am from the United States.

"If you want an idea to get them over here this summer," he offered, "have a two-month drop in the gasoline tax."

Archer said that the cost of gas is one of the factors related to the decline in American visitors.

"We used to see lots of U.S. tourists," Archer said. "Now they're staying away in droves."

Barb Elliot of West Guilford agrees with the idea of a brand name to identify the area and suggested that it is important for local people to get involved in the process of developing a tourism strategy.

One of the tourism report's recommendations was the establishment of strong regional tourism organizations to develop marketing strategies.

Peter Overington, Vice-President of the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs and a director of the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association offered a suggestion to regain the U.S. tourist trade that he admitted wouldn't be popular with the local resort owners.

"The price of accommodation in Haliburton is too high. I can get a room in Markham for 25 to 30 per cent less than what I'd pay here," he said. "We have to somehow lower the rates and increase service."

The subject of fishing in the Highlands is something of a sore spot for Ken Bruce, owner of Ken's Bait and Tackle stores in West Guilford and Haliburton.

Regarding the cost of fishing licences for non-residents, he said: "For them to go fishing now is unreal."

When a member of the audience suggested that the Ministry of Natural Resources be approached to see what could be done, Bruce commented candidly: "You might as well talk to that light over there."

Bruce says his experiences with the ministry have been less than productive. He explained that he sells fishing licences at his West Guilford store but the ministry won't give him permission to sell licences at the recently opened Haliburton store.

He pointed out that there are two other locations that sell fishing licences in the village but that neither of those businesses is open on Sunday or Monday so there is no place in Haliburton for people to buy a licence on those days. He says his stores are open seven days a week.

Swarbrick agreed that there needs to be some dialogue between the tourism and natural resources ministries.

Art Field, who was the moderator for the evening told the people in the audience that the NDP would work in co-operation with the ministries to address their concerns and he thanked them for their input.

Comeback Bantam A Monarchs rebound to defeat Woodville in five

by Jerry Grozelle

The Minden-Woodville bantam A series may be looked upon as the come-back of the season in Minden Minor Hockey. After falling behind two games to none in the best-of-five league finals, the Monarchs rebounded to win the next three in a row to take the title.

Game four of the series in Woodville was the kind that gives coaches (and fans) grey hair.

Minden drew first blood midway through the first period. Jeff Wray was the sniper, with Dave Raback and Tom Bagshaw setting him up.

A full period later the home team tied it up. But the deadlock lasted only four minutes and 36 seconds when Darren Mills put the Monarchs in front again. Dennis Woods and Wray assisted.

The 15-minute third period was eight and a half minutes old when Woodville scored again to knot the game at two apiece.

It looked like the third period was going to end in a tie. With the final 10 seconds ticking off, Raback got the puck to Wray; and Wray to Bagshaw, who banged it home with five seconds left in the game.

The 3-2 win evened the series at 2-2, sending the deciding game to Minden the following night.

Monarch supporters didn't have long to wait for something to cheer about in game five.

The Monarchs made it clear from the opening face-off that they were hungry for the win. Just 32 seconds after the puck was dropped, Wray scored, from Woods and Marty Dettman, drawing a cheer from the local crowd that shook the building.

The fans' reaction seemed to spur the Monarchs on. Thirty-one seconds later Minden was in front 2-0 on a goal by Raback. Chris Eskelin drew an assist on that one.

Ben Ripley's goal with 2:58 left in the first period seemed to take what spirit was left out of the visiting Woodville boys.

Minden held the 3-0 advantage until the middle of the second when Woodville scored to make it 3-1. But that's as close as the visitors would get.

Minden goalie Justin Rowden was a major factor in the win. He made some key saves that not only kept the opposition from chipping at the Minden lead but also kept them from shifting the momentum for a possible rally.

Minden coach Dan Mills said that his team never quit skating on the Friday night in Woodville. He's also willing to admit that the type of game that the two teams played that night is "a little hard on the coaches."

Commenting on Saturday's game on home ice, Mills said: "They came out Saturday night to finish it."

The league championship win advances Minden to the all-Ontario quarter finals against Burke's Falls, which is about a 30 minute drive north of Huntsville on Highway 11.

That series was slated to get under way this past Friday night in Burke's Falls. A coin toss at Friday night's game determined which team had the home ice advantage.

The quarter-final series must be completed by March 13. Because of the travelling distance, Mills said that games will be scheduled for the weekends.

Details of the first three games of the series will be printed in next week's Times.

WHAT DID YOU THINK!

TSN featured the Minden Sled Dog Derby, Saturday night. If you saw the program, drop us a line and tell us what you thought of the presentation.

Concentration: Minden netminder Justin Rowden concentrates on the puck as a Woodville forward gets by the Minden defender. Rowden made the save on this one and the Bantam A Monarchs pulled off a come-from-behind three games to two series victory over Woodville. The Minden team will play against Burke's Falls in the all-Ontario quarter-finals.

Coach happy in spite of losses

by Jerry Grozelle

They may be 0 for 3 in their first three games of the Tri-County round robin playoffs but for the novice B Minden Monarchs it's not for the lack of effort.

A hot goaltender can often mean the difference between a win and a loss and that was the case in the first game of the series. Bobcaygeon's Justin Mills allowed one goal in the first period but the Monarchs couldn't get anything by him after that.

Justin Horsley notched the only goal of the first period on February 22 in Minden to give the Monarchs a 1-0 lead over Bobcaygeon. Shane Both assisted.

Bobcaygeon came out flying in the second, scoring four unanswered goals for the 4-1 win.

Matt Jarvis notched two for Bobcaygeon with Adam Patrick and Lacey Kimble adding one each.

The third period was scoreless. A rematch in Bobcaygeon two days later saw Minden play a strong game only to wind up on the short end of a 3-2 score.

After a scoreless first frame, Bobcaygeon drew first blood in the second.

Minden captain Justin Horsley evened the score when he got loose on a breakaway and made good on the opportunity.

The home team replied with two more before the period ended, pulling in front 3-1.

Another breakaway goal at 3:22 of the third, this time by Colin Vaters, brought Minden back to within striking distance. But Bobcaygeon refused to give up the equalizer, nursing the one-goal advantage until the final buzzer.

Jarvis paced Bobcaygeon with two goals while Chris Taylor and John Head netted one apiece.

Minden played host to Beaverton on February 26, losing another close one, this time by a 2-1 margin.

Alex Lyddiatt in the Minden net and his counterpart at the other end of the rink were both unbeatable in the first period.

Beaverton got on the board first with a goal midway through the second period.

Minden got that one back near the end of the frame. Matthew Young dumped the puck up the boards to Horsley, who went in alone and beat the Beaverton goalie.

The winning goal for Beaverton was scored with 1:43 left in the third period.

"All three games were kept close by excellent goaltending and team play," said Minden coach Kelly Young.

Atom Bs triple Fenelon

The Minden atom B Monarchs rebounded from a pair of heart-breaking losses to Wilberforce recently to defeat the Fenelon Falls Falcons 6-2.

The Monarchs jumped to an early lead, scoring twice in the first two minutes of the game. Derek Barnett and Adam Bathe were the snipers, with Brad Gauley picking up an assist.

Justin Bull scored early in the middle frame for a 3-0 Minden lead.

After Fenelon got on the board to make it 3-1, Jonathan Horsley notched another one for the host Minden team. Bathe assisted.

Fenelon added one more to the visitors' side of the scoreboard, cutting the Minden lead to 4-2.

The strong defensive play of Minden's Gavin Simms, Ryan Lydiatt, Philip Newell and David Burns kept the Fenelon scoring chances to a minimum. But when the Falcon attackers did get by them, rookie goaltender Jeremy Davis was up to the challenge.

Ryan White and Mark Hamilton rounded out the scoring for the Monarchs, with Horsley, Barnett and Chris Boxell drawing assists.

The Monarchs tangled with the Falcons on Friday night in Fenelon Falls to complete the round robin series.

Minden skaters excel at Fenelon Interclub meet

Members of the Minden Skating Club travelled to Fenelon Falls on February 26 and 27 to compete in the 23rd annual Kawartha Highlands Interclub to match their talents against eight other area clubs.

This competition is divided into two levels. Saturday was the competitive day, where the top skater in each event is entered into the Eastern Ontario Section Interclub, to be held in Kingston.

Sunday's event was the non qualifying day. Skaters were competing to earn points towards winning the club trophy. This year, Fenelon Falls earned the most points, with Minden placing fourth.

SATURDAY RESULTS

Jasmine Wilson was second in the pre-preliminary A ladies.

In the pre-preliminary ladies B division, Kate Heming was ninth and Terri Sisson was tenth.

Krista Matysek placed fifth in preliminary ladies flight I. Kerri Matysek was fifth in flight II.

In the preliminary men's competition, Daniel Vanderlip was second in figure, second in freestyle and second overall.

The junior bronze ladies event saw Julie Vanderlip place tenth overall, with tenth place finishes in both the figure and freestyle. In the same division, Katrina Matysek was eleventh in figure and freestyle for an eleventh overall finish.

The senior bronze ladies event saw Marita Schrader take first place in the figure and ninth in the freestyle for a seventh overall finish. Louise Howell placed eighth in figure and sixth in freestyle for an eighth overall finish in the same category.

Kerri Matysek and Daniel Vanderlip were first in the pre-preliminary dance.

Julie Vanderlip and Tristan Pawluch were first in the dance variation.

SUNDAY RESULTS

Amanda Barnett was seventh in the first flight of the compulsory elements. Cindy Malloy was fifth in flight II and Nichole Perreault was sixth.

The elements beginner category for men saw Darren Brown place first. Mark Fisher was fourth.

Aarica Steele was seventh in the CanSkate A ladies flight I. Kourtney Matysek placed third in flight II and Kaitlyn Hewson was seventh.

In CanSkate A men's, Joshua Wales took second place.

The CanSkate B ladies flight I second place finisher was Lindsay Harpley. The flight II division of the same class saw Shona Malloy finish fifth. Becky Wallace was fifth in flight III.

Cheryl Ripley was sixth in flight I of the CanFigureskate ladies event. Monica Miles was third in flight II and Tanya Peacock was second in flight III.

Jennifer Wales took fourth in the pre-preliminary ladies flight I competition.

Megan Hirstwood was sixth in flight II.

Kyla Grexton finished ninth in the preliminary ladies class.

In the pre-preliminary ladies figure, Jennifer Orpana was fourth and Monica Miles was seventh.

Jennifer Wales was seventh in the preliminary ladies figure.

Kyla Grexton placed seventh in the pre-juvenile ladies figure.

In the pre-preliminary similar dance, Jasmine Wilson and Kate Heming took third while Megan Hirstwood and Sarah Wilbee placed sixth.

Stamp team grabs the lead in Men's hockey playoffs

by Jerry Grozelle

Week three of the Minden Men's Recreational Hockey League round robin playoffs ended with Sid Stamp Fuels taking over sole possession of first place in the standings.

The Stamp crew has won all three of its games, pulling one point ahead of Home Hardware. The Home Hardware team remains undefeated but had to settle for a tie against Westside Jug City in the night's first game.

WESTSIDE 3, HOME 3

Home Hardware, the team that finished in first place at the end of the regular season, was forced to play catch-up against the Westside Jug City team in Monday's first of three games.

Westside took the lead with a goal by Dave Pettes early in the first half. Eldon Bull and Mike Keany assisted.

Home got that one back minutes later. Dave Dollo was the sharpshooter, with Doug Allison and Tom Miscoe assisting.

Westside rebounded with two in a row to take over the lead at 3-1 by the end of the first half. Bull scored the go-ahead goal, from Tom Haley and Gary Nelson. Haley made it 3-1 on a set-up from Greg Metcalfe and Pettes.

Kevin Smith, the Home Hardware goalie, was unbeatable in the second half. Meanwhile, his teammates added two goals to the squad's tally to end the game in a 3-3 deadlock.

Miscoe and Trini Elias were the Home goal scorers. Boomer Stamp helped set up both second-period goals with Elias and Richie Mills getting one assist each.

TIMES 3, HARTWICK 3

Hartwick Construction built up a 3-0 lead in the first half of the night's second game. But the Hartwick lead evaporated as The Times notched three unanswered goals in the second to earn a tie.

Scott Hamilton, Chad Connelly and Scott Nesbitt were the Hartwick marksmen in the first frame. Nesbitt, Ron May, Hamilton, Dan Kunkel, Connelly and John Ballentyne picked up one assist apiece.

For The Times, the snipers were Harold Cowen, Andy Campbell and Doug Schell. Paul Walker, Dereck Barnett, Cowen, Joel Cox and Jim Crawford each had one assist for The Times.

STAMP 4, KDD 3

The late game was the only one of the night that generated a win as Sid Stamp Fuels edged Kountry Double D 4-3.

The lead changed hands twice in the first period before ending in a 2-2 draw. Gord Wood got the Stamp crew on the scoreboard first, converting a set-up from Gary Harrison and Craig Philip.

Ivan Ingram's unassisted goal for KDD tied the game at 1-1 and then Steve Stewart scored to give KDD a 2-1 advantage.

Before the first period ended, Stamp got the equalizer from Harrison. Craig Crowe assisted.

Stamp went in front again in the second with a goal by Ben Manuge. That one was an unassisted effort.

KDD got back on even terms again when Jeff Howe notched one, assisted by Ingram and Corey Walker.

The game winner for Stamp Fuels was an unassisted goal by Manuge, his second marker of the game.

Two weeks remain in the round robin playoffs.

Another reason why we make the Honda lighter than the competition.

Lighter, but no lightweight. In fact, Honda's advanced engineering gives our FOURTRAX 300 4x4 more than a 75 lb. weight advantage, and the best power-to-weight ratio in its class. That means it has the raw power to put in a hard week's work, and the Perfect: Bantam Bs six for six in playoffs with win over Bobcaygeon

by Jerry Grozelle

Undefeated is how the Minden Monarchs' Bantam B hockey team finished the round robin playoffs. The Monarchs were six for six to finish atop the Tri-County round robin playoff series.

The latest win for the Minden team was Saturday, February 26 when Mariposa provided the opposition. The result was a 6-2 victory for the Monarchs.

Mariposa remained in contention until the third period.

Minden led 1-0 at the end of the first period on a goal by Sean Irvine. Ian Clemments and Jason Kasepчук assisted.

Three and a half minutes into the middle frame George Godfrey scored an unassisted goal to give Minden a 2-0 advantage.

With 3:37 left in the second period Collin Gilson got one past Shane Flood in the Minden net to cut the Monarchs' lead to a single goal. The period ended with Minden in front by a 2-1 margin.

Four goals in a row in the third left no doubt of the outcome. Mariposa got one back with four and a half minutes left in the game to end it at 6-2 in favour of the Monarchs.

Wind-up: A Minden attacker winds up for a blast at the Bobcaygeon net during the sixth game of the Tri-County Bantam B round robin playoffs for the Monarchs. They won all six games and now await the outcome of the rest of the action to see which team they will meet in the championship round.

Nathan Stephenson and Clemments notched the first two markers of the third frame for Minden, both unassisted. Then, Jamie Henderson scored two in a row. Adam Carpenter helped set up the first one along with Godfrey. Henderson's second marker was assisted by Godfrey alone.

Oakwood's John Kuiperij got the last goal of the game.

The Monarchs are awaiting the outcome of the rest of the round robin series to see who they will meet for the Tri-County championship.

The other three teams still in the hunt are Wilberforce, Keswick and Mariposa. The two top teams from this series will meet for the championship and the bottom two will battle it out for the consolation title.

"The heart of curling is its incomparable spirit. Without that spirit, curling is just another pastime."

Played in that spirit, it is the king of all games.

The respect and honour accorded to any curler is derived neither from his wealth nor his social position, but rather from his worth as a man, his skill and gentlemanly conduct as a curler and his devotion to the game and its spirit."

The Spirit of Curling
Canadian Curling Association

Plenty of spirit at seniors' bonspiel

by Aileen Blears

The spirit of curling was evident when Minden Seniors hosted a Round Robin Bonspiel Tuesday, February 15. Teams from Haliburton, Fenelon Falls, Bobcaygeon and Minden vied for top honours.

Fenelon Falls took first and second places. Third was Norm Gilmore's Minden four. He was backed up by Stan Hill, Jack Robson and Hugh Hamilton.

Hal Burton and his rink of Ross Codlin, Gord Arthur and Jim Bradbury put on quite a show for the spectators as they squeaked by their opponents in the first game. Second game?...no comment!

The very popular Valu-mart Bonspiel was held Tuesday February 25, with enough participants for two draws. Again, 'curling was king' as everyone entered into the "spirit of curling".

Teams from Daleswood, Fenelon Falls, Peterborough, Bobcaygeon, Haliburton, Woodville, Oshawa, Beaverton, Orillia and Minden, threw, swept and shouted their way from end to end in the all-day event.

Winners of the Valu-mart trophy were Bob Mann, Larry Skitch, Russ Thompson and

Neil McIsaac from Fenelon Falls. Very close behind was the Daleswood rink. Minden managed a third place finish spot. Ross Davies skipped the team of Russ Fair, Bill Milford and Ted Wilkes. Congratulations to all

Thanks to Bill Milford who again staged a well-run 'speil.

Prizes were eagerly accepted: these included beautifully packaged steaks from Minden Valu-mart. Sincere thanks to them for their generous and gracious participation. Already, the 1995 'Valu-mart 'spiel' is being anticipated.

Quite a number of Minden Senior Curlers missed the dance and get-together February 26. The 35 or so who DID attend pronounced it a very enjoyable evening. The music was appropriate to the dancers, with the odd far-out piece which allowed some brave souls to let down their hair a little. It is true that loss of inhibition tends to lead to exhibition.

The committee responsible for the evening was headed by Ross Codlin with Molly McCarthy and Marion Thomas. Helen Rice looked after the prizes. Anne and Tom Hurtt won the door prize, and several spot dance prizes were awarded.

Legion 'spiel draws 32 rinks

by Dave McAdam

On Sunday, February 27, the Legion branch 636 had their second annual curling fun day at the Minden Curling Club.

There were 16 teams playing in each of two draws. The competition, like the ice, was keen. The curling was followed by a delicious pot luck dinner.

Results of the first draw were as follows:

First: Cheryl Murdoch, Vern McCullough, Nancy Adamson and Betty Milford.

Second: Gwen Cox, Jim Bradbury, Liz McDonald and Beth Blyth.

Third: Marie Lennard, Gord Arthur, Nancy Moore and Gladys Marquardt.

The second draw winners were:

First: Syd Adamson, Fred Simmons, Betty Shyler and Jack Robson.

Second: Ken Walsh, Jean Hewitt, Rene Codlin and Blair Davidson.

Third: Ruth Bishop, Cliff Green, Jerry Campbell and Harry Troupe.

The trophy will be inscribed with the names of the two winning teams.

Correction

In the Legion column of February 28, we erred on the date of the coming Scottish Pub night. It should be March 12. Hope to see you there.

Wild game dinner and dance set for March 19

"Venison anyone?"

That's a question patrons of the first Haliburton Highlands Outdoors Association's Wild Game Dinner are likely to hear.

Cuisine of the night will include such delicacies as venison, moose, bear, beaver and even a small quantity of wild boar. All of the meat has been donated by association members.

For those who aren't partial to wild game, roast beef and ham will also be served.

The $15.00 per person ticket price also includes a dance following the meal at the Haliburton Legion on Saturday, March 19. Music will be provided by the band Summer Wind, featuring a country-rock sound.

Adding to the fun of the dance will be a silent auction with items provided by local businesses, Ducks Unlimited and other organizations. Among the dozen or so auction items is a Lawn Boy lawn mower, limited edition prints and a decoy, to name a few.

The doors to the dinner will be opened at 6:00 p.m. to start the social hour and give people the chance to check out the silent auction items.

The buffet style dinner will be from 7:00 to 8:30 and the dance will get under way at 9:00 p.m.

A limited number of tickets to the dinner and dance are still available from Bruce's Barber Shop in Haliburton or Minden Live Bait and Tackle at the north junction of Highways 35 and 121.

Some dance-only tickets have also been set aside for those who may not be available to attend the dinner. Dance-only tickets are $7.50 per person from either of the two locations listed above or a few may still be available at the door on the night of the dance.

Minden skaters excel

in the preliminary similar dance, with Jennifer Orpana and Jennifer Wales taking fourth.

Fifth place in the junior bronze similar dance went to Krista Matysek and Kartina Matysek.

The senior bronze similar dance class saw Louise Howell and Kyla Grexton place fourth.

Cori Barkwell and Marita Schrader were fifth in the open similar dance competition.

First place in the beginner similar dance class was won by Julie Vanderlip and Kerri Matysek.

In the open similar pairs competition, Marita Schrader and Louise Howell were ninth.

Krista Matysek was fifth in the first flight of the preliminary interpretive class while Kyla Grexton placed sixth in flight II.

The junior bronze interpretive class saw Tristan Pawluch place second while Katrina Matysek was seventh.

Kate Heming was fourth in the open interpretive division.

Club officials were very pleased with the efforts of the Minden skaters.

The Elmer Iseler Singers made an encore performance in the Highlands last week. The concert was arranged as the closing performance of the Haliburton Highlands Concert Series' fourteenth season.

Encore! Elmer Iseler Singers show versatility

by Craig Saunders

Lovers of music in the Haliburton Highlands were given a rare treat last Sunday night (February 27) when the Haliburton Highlands Concert Series closed out its fourteenth season with a performance by the Elmer Iseler Singers under the direction of Dr. Elmer Iseler.

This was a reprise of a concert given here by the same group three years ago. Their return was arranged in response to the large number of requests by concert series patrons for an encore performance and the singers did not disappoint.

The show consisted of choral music spanning three centuries and a wide variety of styles that showed off the versatility of the singers. The first half of the show concentrated on three different composers from three different eras starting with baroque selections from the cantatas of Johann Sebastian Bach, continuing with a classical assortment from the works of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and concluding with a variety of songs from contemporary composer, and former patron of Dr. Iseler, Aaron

Human materialism crowding out nature

For years, environmentalists have sounded the alarm over the threat of species extinction. Whooping cranes, whales, spotted owls and marbled murrelets have been at the centre of debate over the fate of the biological makeup of all life on the earth.

The human population explosion has accelerated the rate of species extinction. Our use of space for housing, food, materials and energy has put pressure on wild places and organisms.

Complex ecosystems are transformed into biological deserts by our dams, farms and housing developments. In imposing our power over our surroundings, we radically reduce biological diversity in the planet.

By our actions we have shown little regard for biological diversity, yet heterogeneity is a characteristic of populations of living organisms.

It is found at the level of DNA within a species. This genetic variability has been assumed to be responsible for the evolutionary persistence of a species by conferring resilience and flexibility.

That's why there is concern for the fate of species like bison and tigers which have been reduced to a small number of survivors. With a reduced genetic base, they are more vulnerable to a new threat such as predation, disease or environmental change.

Biodiversity also exists at the species level in the sum total of living organisms on the planet. And in their distribution, numbers and proportion, the network of species found in every ecosystem is different and unique.

Biologists have long theorized that biodiversity confers flexibility on species and ecosystems, enabling them to survive different assaults and bounce back from disasters.

On the other hand, it has been suggested that maintaining maximal species and ecosystem diversity isn't that urgent because many species are similar.

This idea implies what really matters is representation of species within major groupings because related species are ecologically redundant. In a time of explosive disputes over the Great Whale River and the Clayoquot forest, these opposing suggestions have serious repercussions.

In a paper entitled "Biodiversity and the stability of grasslands" just published in the scientific journal, NATURE, ecologists David Tilman and John Downing have accumulated strong evidence for a biological role of biodiversity.

In a 12-year study, they counted between one and 26 different species in 207 prairie test plots, each measuring three metres square. For each plot, they determined the biological productivity by the criterion of the weight of the vegetation.

In 1987-88, the study region underwent a severe drought and the researchers found that the productivity of the plots correlated strongly with the number of plant species. Vegetation shrank to about half of the pre-drought average in plots with the most species, all the way to about an eighth in the most species-poor plots.

Equally significant was the observation that the resilience of the plots after the drought was also correlated with the biodiversity.

Thus by 1992, the species rich plots had returned to pre-drought levels of productivity, while the species-poor land still hadn't achieved those levels. The authors conclude, "this study implies that the preservation of biodiversity is essential for the maintenance of stable productivity in ecosystems."

Tilman says, "Biodiversity of an ecosystem has a major impact on its stability and functioning. This work leaves little doubt that biodiversity matters and that habitats with more species withstand stress better and recover faster. The more species you have, the more likely some will be resistant to drought or other stress. We should preserve biodiversity because it's nature's insurance policy against catastrophes. By sustaining biodiversity, we help to sustain ourselves." Downing adds, "Instead of eliminating species from our forests, wetlands, roadsides, lake shores, power-lines, parks and lawns, we should be preserving them."

Based on his work,

By our actions we have shown little regard for biological diversity.

Reflections

by David Suzuki

Downing warns, "Today humans are greatly reducing biodiversity, not just in the tropics, but right here in North America. More than 12 per cent of the plant species in the United States are already listed as rare or endangered and in Canada more than one per cent of known species are threatened.

"Some countries may lose as many as 30 per cent of their plant species over the next two decades. This loss of species has serious long-term implications for life on earth. It makes the environment more susceptible to insects, disease, fire, drought, abnormally hot or cold weather, floods, acidification and other stresses."

With this scientific evidence for the value of biodiversity, the question is, does society take science seriously.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: David Suzuki's Reflections column has been appearing in The Times for a number of years. We would appreciate hearing from regular readers of the column on whether they feel the information and point of view is valuable in helping them understand issues related to the environment.)

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE SUBSTITUTE DECISIONS ACT

YOU
DECISIONS ACT

AN IMPROVED LAW ABOUT POWERS OF ATTORNEY GOES INTO EFFECT IN EARLY 1995.

It's called the Substitute Decisions Act, and it's designed to give people more control over what happens to them if they become mentally incapable.

Recently, people have been asking serious questions about the Substitute Decisions Act. When does it come into effect? What do I need to know? How will it affect me?

YOU NEED TO KNOW

- THE SUBSTITUTE DECISION ACT IS NOT COMING INTO EFFECT ON MARCH 1, 1994. The act will only become law in early 1995.
- YOU DON'T HAVE TO MAKE A POWER OF ATTORNEY IF YOU DON'T WANT TO. Not now. Not ever. You don't have to, but there are some good reasons to do so. By making a power of attorney, you can make sure that someone you trust has the legal authority to make decisions for you if you become mentally incapable. In other words, you decide who decides.
- A POWER OF ATTORNEY IS A LEGAL DOCUMENT. BUT YOU DON'T NEED A LAWYER TO CREATE IT. A power of attorney names the person or persons you have chosen to make decisions on your behalf. It defines their responsibilities and clarifies your wishes. You may want to consult a lawyer for advice, especially if your finances are complex. But you don't have to. In a few weeks, the Ontario Government will make free power of attorney forms available, along with guidelines on how to complete them.
- IF YOU ALREADY HAVE A POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR YOUR FINANCES, YOU DON'T NEED A NEW ONE. If you have already made a power of attorney that names someone to make financial decisions if you become incapable, it will still be effective when the Substitute Decisions Act becomes law. The Substitute Decisions Act expands your control by allowing you to choose someone to make decisions about your personal care as well.
- THE PUBLIC GUARDIAN AND TRUSTEE WILL ONLY MAKE FINANCIAL DECISIONS ON YOUR BEHALF AS A LAST RESORT. If you are mentally incapable and if no one else is willing or able to act for you, the Public Guardian and Trustee may be required to act on your behalf.

The Substitute Decisions Act was developed through extensive consultations and was passed unanimously by the Ontario Legislature in 1992.

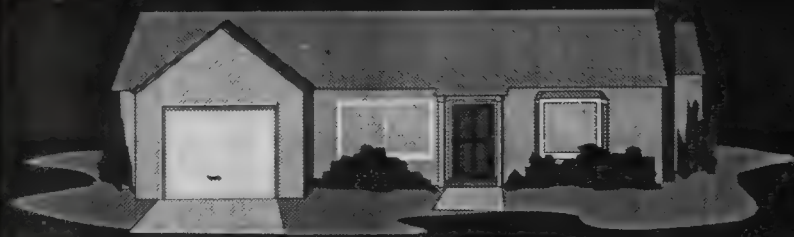

The idea behind the Substitute Decisions Act is simple: By creating a power of attorney for your financial affairs and a power of attorney for your personal care, you can make sure that someone of your choosing has the legal authority to act on your behalf.

MORE INFORMATION IS AVAILABLE

If you want to know more about the Substitute Decisions Act or get free power of attorney forms, write to SDA Information, Office of the Public Trustee, 145 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ontario M5H 2N8.

Stunning accuracy featured in series finale

Copland.

After a short intermission, the performance changed direction again with a selection of spirituals sung a cappella and including a rousing solo rendition of "Let Me Fly" by baritone Nelson Lohnes. The concert was then rounded out with a variety of Canadian music which included the French-Canadian "Le Tambour", the conceptual "Epitaph for Moonlight" which used the voices of the singers in a seemingly haphazard manner to create wonderful vocal sound effects, and several maritime numbers sung complete with maritime accents for authenticity. Nelson Lohnes again impressed the large audience with a solo in the very beautiful "Song for Mira."

In addition to the wide variety of styles present from one section of the show to the next, the group was also able to demonstrate its versatility within a particular section. The Bach cantatas varied from an extremely delicate and subtle singing of "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" to more familiar and traditional renditions of "Thank We All Our God" and "The Doxology" from Cantata 130. Copland's music ranged from the rousing "Stomp Your Foot" to the simple Shaker tune of "Simple Gifts" and the religious "At The River."

Accompanying the singers throughout the evening was Lydia Adams who has served as the accompanist for the Elmer Iseler Singers since 1981. Although her playing was excellent throughout the evening, it was her performance during "Epitaph for Moonlight" that garnered the most attention. Instead of playing the piano with the keys as is normally done, she reached inside the instrument and plucked and strummed the strings as though it were an oversized harp. The sheet music for this piece must be interesting!

Dr. Iseler's charismatic conducting controls both the singers and his audience with stunning accuracy. The technical ability of this group is nothing short of astonishing and is eclipsed only by their artistic interpretations. It is easy to see why the Elmer Iseler Singers have such a good reputation as one of the world's best choral groups. They give approximately one hundred performances each year to audiences around the world. In addition, the group forms the professional core of the Mendelssohn Choir which performs twenty five to thirty times a year with the Toronto Symphony. When you consider the amount of time spent by the singers in rehearsals, performances and travelling, it is indeed gratifying to have been able to see them again as part of the Concert Series.

Tickets now on sale

Speaking of the Concert Series, tickets for next season are now available. The fifteenth season of the Haliburton Highlands Concert Series opens on October 16 with "Wingfield's Folly" the third instalment of the "Wingfield Trilogy". In November, violinist Ioan Harea, "King of the Gypsy Violin" will perform and next March will see the arrival of the Algonquin Trio.

Call 286-1218 or 447-2509 for more information or pick up tickets at IDA Drug Store in Minden or at Nancy's Flowers or the Rails' End Gallery in Haliburton.

Skiers regret loss of great volunteer

by John Teljeur

Volunteers are that special breed of people who put in countless hours and perform many tasks and ask very little in return. All have their own reasons for being a volunteer - to help their business, their belief in that cause, or the personal satisfaction from participation. And then there are those individuals who are the rarest of breeds. The ones who dedicate themselves to something without any thought of personal gain but rather are truly satisfied that their contribution, be it large or small, enhances the spirit of the community. We are deeply saddened to have recently lost such a person.

I can remember how this man, my dad, and many others, all with their own reasons for being there, would trudge further and further into the bush each day, carving out a ten foot path that would later become the Haliburton Nordic Trails. Through this project they would accumulate many hundreds of hours of hard work, walk many miles and expend countless energy - all to create something that would benefit this community's inhabitants, businesses and visitors.

Among my memories of those days, I recall one man in particular. A tall, very kind and rather quiet person that, to those who were lucky enough to know him, personified the word 'gentleman'. He would be in that bush each day, working shoulder to shoulder with resort owners, business people, skiing enthusiasts, and others. Yet he had no real reason for being there. He didn't own a resort nor can I ever remember seeing him skiing. He was there because he was one of the rarest of breeds.

We'll miss you Ron Tyler.

WOMAN ABUSE & ALCOHOL The True Facts

Myth: Alcohol causes men to assault their female partners.

Fact: Alcohol can make it easier for a man to be violent, but the real cause of women abuse is the batterer's desire for power and control over his female partner. Batterers often use alcohol as an excuse to avoid taking responsibility for their violent behaviour.

Conclusion: Drinking alcohol does not cause women abuse.

Although drinking alcohol prior to violence does occur in 25 - 50% of cases of women abuse (depending on the study), this also means that 50 - 75% of the cases of violence against women do not involve alcohol. Therefore, most incidents of women abuse do not involve alcohol and are not caused by alcohol.

The cause of women abuse is the batterer's desire of power and control over their female partner.

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF LUTTERWORTH PUBLIC NOTICE

File # SR- 9/93

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Municipal Corporation of the Township of Lutterworth, proposes to enact a by-law to stop up, close and convey to the abutting property owners a portion of the original allowance for road set out and described as follows:

FIRSTLY: ALL and singular those certain parcels or tracts of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Township of Lutterworth, in the County of Haliburton and being composed of part of the original sixty-six foot shore road allowance along the shore of Otter Lake, lying in front of Part of Lot 17, Concession 14, and being more particularly described as Parts 4, 5 & 6 on a Plan deposited in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of the County of Haliburton as Plan 19R-5857.

THE PROPOSED BY-LAW will come before the said Council for consideration at its Regular Meeting to be held at the Municipal Office, located three miles south of Minden on Highway #35 on the 24th of March, 1994, at the hour of 7:00 p.m. and at that time, the Council will hear in person or by his or her counsel, solicitor or agent any person who claims that his or her land will be prejudicially affected and who applies to be heard.

DATED at the Township of Lutterworth this 15th day of February, 1994.

File # SR-6/93

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Municipal Corporation of the Township of Lutterworth, proposes to enact a by-law to stop up, close and convey to the abutting property owners a portion of the original allowance for road set out and described as follows:

FIRSTLY: ALL and singular those certain parcels or tracts of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Township of Lutterworth, in the County of Haliburton and being composed of part of the original sixty-six foot shore road allowance along the shore of Gull River, lying in front of Part of Lot 7, Concession 13, and being more particularly described as Part 1 on a Plan deposited in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of the County of Haliburton as Plan 19R-5849.

THE PROPOSED BY-LAW will come before the said Council for consideration at its Regular Meeting to be held at the Municipal Office, located three miles south of Minden on Highway #35 on the 24th day of March, 1994, at the hour of 7:00 p.m. and at that time, the Council will hear in person or by his or her counsel, solicitor or agent any person who claims that his or her land will be prejudicially affected and who applies to be heard.

DATED at the Township of Lutterworth this 18th day of February, 1994.

Mary Jane Irwin, A.M.C.T. (A),
Clerk-Treasurer,
Township of Lutterworth,

Around the County Town

by Jeanne Sears (call 286-1538)

Wanda and Garnet Davis travelled to Huntsville Saturday to help their granddaughter Mandi celebrate her 19th birthday. Congratulations Mandi!

Please note the Legion Branch 636 Scottish Pub Night will be held Saturday, March 12 not March 2 as stated.

Club 35 euchre game winners from February 28 included for most lone hands Ray Brown, highs Betty Campbell and Ray Sisson and Olive Daniels, Ken Wallace and Steve Fortais. The 50-50 draw went to Jim Bradbury and special awards to Olive Daniels and Steve Fortais. The next Wheels to Meals will be March 15 at noon and the Annual Roast Beef Dinner will be held March 12 at 6 p.m.

The Kinettes will be sponsoring public skating on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of the school March Break.

Rick English and Marilyn Rowden are home after spending three weeks in the Dominican Republic where they had a lovely holiday.

Al Stott, Maurice Boyd and George Moulton were on hand when the Lions Club of Minden presented wheel chairs (made in Canada) to the Terrace and Court. The Seniors much appreciate this gesture and the chairs will go to good use.

Lucky winner for the Kinmount Legion Branch 441 draw for February was Don Humphreys of Oshawa who took home $90.

A large crowd attended Carnarvon Lanes on February 27 for the Mr and Mrs Competition. The winners were Gord Martin and Laura Carnegie with plus 217; Jean and Bill Stead with plus 102 and Hazel and Jack Gregory with plus 63. The high single went to Ken Thompson and the bowlers came from all the leagues at Carnarvon Lanes.

Stanhope Seniors have great fun on Tuesday afternoons as they compete in indoor shuffleboard. With that day's partner they play three games and if there are too many for the first round, the others participate in euchre or cribbage games. This is a great way to spend an afternoon and some of us "new" people have made new friends.

John and Margaret Bradley and family from Toronto have recently moved back to Minden.

Gladys Reid was away recently and had a great visit with her daughter Pat Reid in Toronto.

Howard Dart of Newcastle visited his father Bud Dart in Haliburton and also had a brief visit with the Bob Vicks.

Chic and Marian Minaker visited recently with Mr and Mrs Kelly Medcalfe.

On February 25 a pot luck supper followed by euchre games was held at Club 35. The winners were: Bill Matthews with most lone hands, Olive Jones and Bill Cowen with the high scores and Verna Sawyer, Olive Daniels and Norm Lee. The 50-50 draw went to Olive Jones and a special prize to Verna Sawyer.

Clare and Dorothy Eves of Queensville were recent visitors with Florence Robinson.

Visitors with Louise Carr and Sue Howell recently were Bob and Harriet Nasegoblin who had many hellos for friends in our community.

All good wishes to Doreen Sandals, Ron Arbuthnot, Ira Carter, Wayne Taylor and Janice Shaw who have been on the sick list recently.

Florence Robinson was pleased to have a telephone call from her brother Roy Rogers of B.C. who told her of their mild winter with only a small amount of snow.

Weekly afternoon winners at St. Paul's euchre games on Monday, February 28 were Marg McAfee with most lone hands, Joe McQuire, Elli Langpohl and Jeanne Sears. The draw winner was Marie Dennie.

Sincere sympathy to the families and friends of the late Ada Stevens and George Arbuckle who passed away recently.

Minden Legion Senior euchre game winners on March 1 included Mary Colman, most lone hands, Jack Chilton, Edna Trumbull and Jean Scadden.

Bridge game winners at Stanhope on March 1 were Stan Hill, Brian Adamson and Thelda Weston.

A good crowd enjoyed euchre games at Lochlin Centre on March 1 with the winners there being Gerald Hicks with most lone hands, Lois Peters, Bruce O'Brien, Chris Hill and Isabel Saunders. The next games there will be held March 15 at 7:30 p.m. with everyone welcome.

Minden Women's Institute are having a Crafts Workshop on March 16 with knitting and plastic needlepoint. Please bring knitting needles, two size 8 and a tapestry needle, yarn, and a crochet hook. The workshop will follow the regular meeting at 2 p.m. in the Library / Cultural Centre with everyone welcome.

St. James' Anglican Church, Kinmount are holding their annual St. Patrick's Luncheon, Bake Sale and Craft table at the parish hall on Saturday, March 12 at 11 a.m. with homemade soup, sandwich and desserts. Everyone welcome.

St. Paul's Anglican Church in Minden will be holding their Irish Stew dinner on March 17 after 5 p.m., with entertainment to follow.

Members please note the Minden Ag. Society meeting will be held March 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Jean and Bill Moore.

Election Day is also March 17 so don't forget to get out and make your mark - we need a representative down in Queen's Park.

It makes us very happy to see the mild sunny days here again and listening to the crows complaining. We feel we have earned the good weather after all those cold, cold temperatures and ice making things difficult for everyone.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE RE: POWERS OF ATTORNEY

It has come to our attention that through various media articles the general public may be under some misunderstanding of new legislation which has been passed by the Ontario Legislature which will be coming into effect shortly. The basic legislation passed is called the "Substitute Decisions Act, 1992". This new legislation does affect all of us.

We would strongly advise our clients and the general public, to seek legal advice of their own choice to better inform themselves of the nature of the legislative changes and certain documentation that can be entered into by each person to protect and preserve individual and family interests of both a personal and business nature.

CARDS OF THANKS

My personal thanks to the management and staff of Hyland Crest for their understanding, kindness and friendship during my late wife's residency at the Home. A special expression of appreciation to all the members of the 'nursing' staff for the five years of TLC you gave so unstintingly to Mary. Your 'Beyond the Call of Duty' will remain a precious memory, as you gave Mary so much happiness, drawing her into laughter, chuckles and smiles. Thank you 'Girls'. Thank you Dr. Chayer, the staff of Monk's Funeral Home, Pastors Jim Fast and Ross Fogwell for your spiritual leadership, also the ladies of Minden Bible Church for providing a warm, friendly lunch.
John Burgess.

Words cannot express my deepest thanks to friends and family for kindnesses to me following my recent surgery. My heartfelt appreciation for all the delicious food delivered and the beautiful plants and flowers. Many thanks also for prayers, cards and phone calls and care and concern of Minden's Dr. Warsi, Dr. Bhatia, Dr. Lindsay and staff at Ross Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to my family who have been a tremendous help. God bless you all.
Janice Shaw.

Minden Minor Hockey wish to thank: Kawartha Dairy, Dollo's IGA, Minden Valu-mart, Coneybeare's Butcher Shop and Leitha's Sweets & Treats. Because of your help and support, our hockey dance was a great success.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to Dr. Katsuta and staff of Minden Medical Centre, Red Cross Lydia and Joan, VON Home Support nurses for their tender, loving care. The staff and nurses of Minden Hospital. Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home, Rev. Brian Parker for their care during Horry's illness and bereavement. Many thanks also to friends and neighbours for prayers, cards, visits, telephone calls and food. A special thank you to Lois Adamson, Evelyn Coleman and Royal Canadian Legion Branch 636.
Anne Baker, Joanne McKinnell, Jerry Baker.

CARDS OF THANKS

I should like to thank all my relatives and friends for their cards, gifts, visits and prayers. The Reverend Harry Morgan, whose visits and prayers were much appreciated while I was in the hospital. Many, many thanks to the doctors and nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough with special thanks to the nurses of the intensive care unit for the tender care which has returned me to good health once again. Thank you again.
Ida May Hicks.

AT REST

STEVENS,
Ada Victoria

At Peterborough Civic Hospital on Monday, March 2, 1994 in her 92nd year. Beloved wife of the late Andrew Stevens, dear mother of Noreen Elaine (Mrs. Leonard Basciano) of Peterborough, David Michael of Minden and Connie (Mrs. Donald Graham) of Richmond Hill. Dear mother-in-law of Sonia. Loving grandmother of Michael, Geoffrey and Stefanie. Dear sister of Gordon Kellett, predeceased by Bruce, Howard, Alma, Roxy and Percival. Rested at the Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home, 127 Main Street, Minden on Thursday. Funeral service was held in the Chapel on Friday, March 4 at 1:30 p.m. Spring interment Minden Cemetery. Memorial donations to the charity of your choice would be appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM

DAVIS, Frank - In loving memory of a dear Dad who passed away March 19, 1991. They say memories are golden, Well, that may be true, But we never wanted memories, We only wanted you. If tears could build a stairway, And heartaches make a lane, We could walk a path to Heaven And bring you back again. Our family chain was broken And nothing is the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again. Sadly missed by Glen, Lois and families.

HAPPY 50th BARRY

I couldn't have made it through the last week without your love and support!
